deposit box be held for at least 120 days after the property is reported to the attorney general. Changes the provisions relating to the crediting of dividends, interest, and increments to a presumed owner's account to conform with the uniform unclaimed property act. Requires the attorney general to give notice approving or denying a claim within 90 days after the claim is filed. Allows a person aggrieved by a decision of the attorney general on the person's unclaimed property claim to file an original claim in a court of competent jurisdiction. (Current law requires the aggrieved person to contest the decision in an administrative hearing before allowing the person to appeal the decision in court.) Allows a court to award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party in an action brought by the attorney general to enforce the unclaimed property act. Changes the penalty provisions for noncompliance to conform with those in the uniform unclaimed property act. Changes the provisions regarding agreements to locate property presumed abandoned to conform with those in the uniform unclaimed property act. Provides that the unclaimed property act does not apply to property held in a foreign country arising out of a foreign transaction.
